

House of Blue Hope Foundation

Overcoming poverty through education... one child at a time.

March 2011, Vol 3 Issue 1

Happy Anniversary!

On February 15th, the House of Blue Hope turned 4 years old. Over the past four years we have gone from supporting 4 kids in a rented room to now supporting 16 kids through school, owning our own building, renting a second building, instituting a variety of weekend and evening holistic educational programs, and partnering with a number of other non-profits throughout the country as we really try to address the root causes of why there are kids on the streets in the first place. It's been quite the journey!

Thank you for all your support and helping us be so successful. We look forward to many more anniversaries and hope you will continue to support our mission and the children in the program. Thank you!

News From Tanzania - Meet Eliah

Eliah was referred to the House of Blue Hope by a Baptist church in Dar es Salaam that knew he needed help. Eliah's father has passed and his mother works hard, but struggles to support her family on her own. Eliah is 5 years old and now that he is in the House of Blue Hope program he is currently enrolled in nursery school. He is not sure yet what he wants to be when he grows up, but he is very excited to be in school and enjoys learning English with the Blue Hope after school tutor, Patrick.

Past Event Roundup - Wicked Wolf Tavern

On Friday, February 11th, the House of Blue Hope Foundation hosted a Happy Hour event in White Plains, New York at Wicked Wolf Tavern from 5:30pm to 7:30pm with 20 people attending and over $300 of proceeds. This was the first event hosted in the area, however the strong turn-out and enjoyable evening will likely lead us to host another event here in the Spring. A special thank you to Kate Sadowski and Tara Spector for organizing the event and to Wicked Wolf Tavern for being an excellent host. We look forward to seeing many of you at our next event, thanks again for the support!

Special Note

Keep an eye on our blog as we have a very special announcement about a trip coming soon!
